

DOT-POINT BRIEF

WEARING POPPIES WITH NAVAL UNIFORM

NZBR 3 – Article 0212. Wearing of Poppies with Naval Uniform

- Anzac Day 2018 highlighted the inconsistency of positioning of Poppies on RNZN uniform. The below table details the current NZBR 3 Policy and includes imagery to confirm placement. RNZN, RNZNR, RNZNVR and NZCF Sea Cadet personnel are to adhere to this policy.

Garment	Position

White Tunic / Bush Jacket

Above the left pocket or an equivalent positioning.

If an individual wears Medals, Medal Ribbons or a Qualification Badge then the poppy is to be positioned centrally above all badges and medals.

General Working Dress Shirt

White SD/ Tropical Shirt

Above the left pocket or an equivalent positioning. If an individual wears Medals, Medal Ribbons or a Qualification Badge then the poppy is to be positioned centrally above all badges and medals.

Mild Weather Jacket

To be secured to the left breast of the Jacket.
